LLOYD'S LIST 1741-1826

This reproduction has been made by kind permission of the Corporation of Lloyd's from the volumes in its London archives. These represent the most comprehensive extant run of the List and are therefore reproduced with all marginalia and other manuscript additions intact.

The collection does not include any issues for 1742, 1743, 1745, 1746, 1754, 1756, 1759 or 1778; while various individual issues are lacking from certain volumes.

Every effort has been made to achieve consistent quality throughout this reproduction but it inevitably reflects certain defects of the original: variations of paper and impression, staining through age and constant reference, slight external damage caused by oversewing or cropping of single issues when bound in volume form.

Each volume of the reproduction includes as appropriate a list of missing and damaged issues as well as notes on dating and inconsistencies of issue numbering. Notes on the rival publications Lloyd's List and New Lloyd's List are contained in the relevant reprint volumes: i.e. those covering the years 1768 to 1788 inclusive.

Last Saturday Morning, in a hard Gale of Wind at E.N.E. a Ship was loft on the Goodwin Sands, and all the Crew perished; it's suppos'd to be a Dane or Sweed for the West-Indies.

The Friendship, Rawlins, from New-foundland for London, pass'd by Pool the 1st Instant.

The Harliquin, Simons, from Smyrna for Amsterdam, was well off Totbay the 29th Ult.
